Eight Committees Handle Student Council Business

Buoyed by the drawing of a new constitution, the Student Council was able to deal with any business coming to it by referring the business to one of its eight specialized committees. By implementing this plan the Student Council achieved the involvement of the entire student body. In April this plan reached its culmination when all years participated in the Spring Carnival.

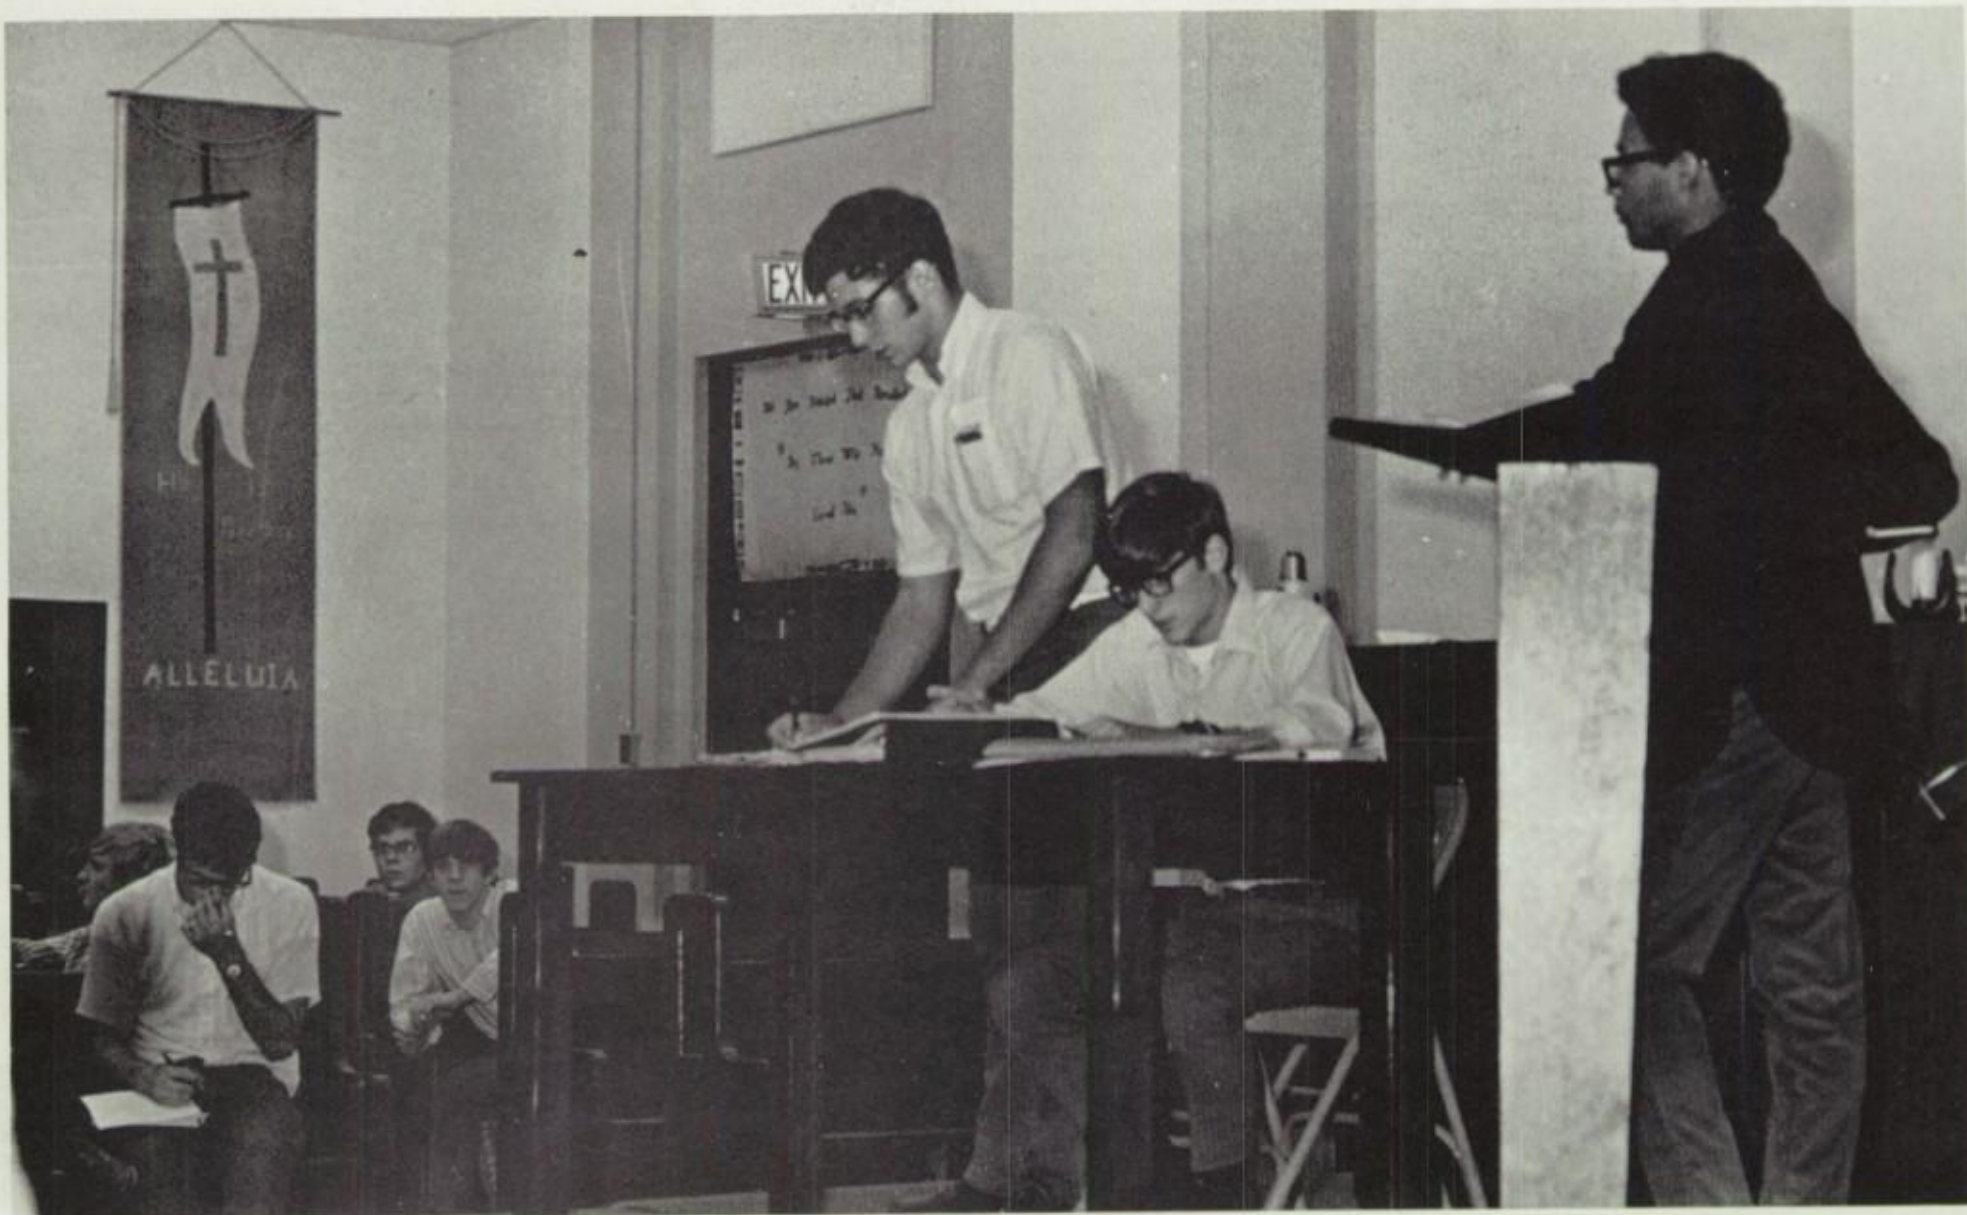

Perhaps the most important achievement of the Student Council was to create an increased awareness among the students of the social problems of our community and of their obligation to become involved in these problems as a corrective force. Participation in the Walk for Development and the Christmas Project for families in the inner city were two programs the Student Council sponsored. Another, which was probably the most significant, was the Senior Project. Hopefully this project will set a precedent for more community involvement in the future.

First Dauphin Player Production: The Fantasticks

In October the Dauphin Players produced The Fantasticks, a universal love story which Director Jack Warner, S.J., gave a simple yet colorful interpretation. Cast as El Gallo was Steve Keller, who moved the show in a professional manner. Linda Saputo and Denny Dougherty paired well as the lovers, blending perfectly in the reprise of "You Are Love." As the mute John Lucas proved the age-old maxim: "There are no small actors, only small roles."

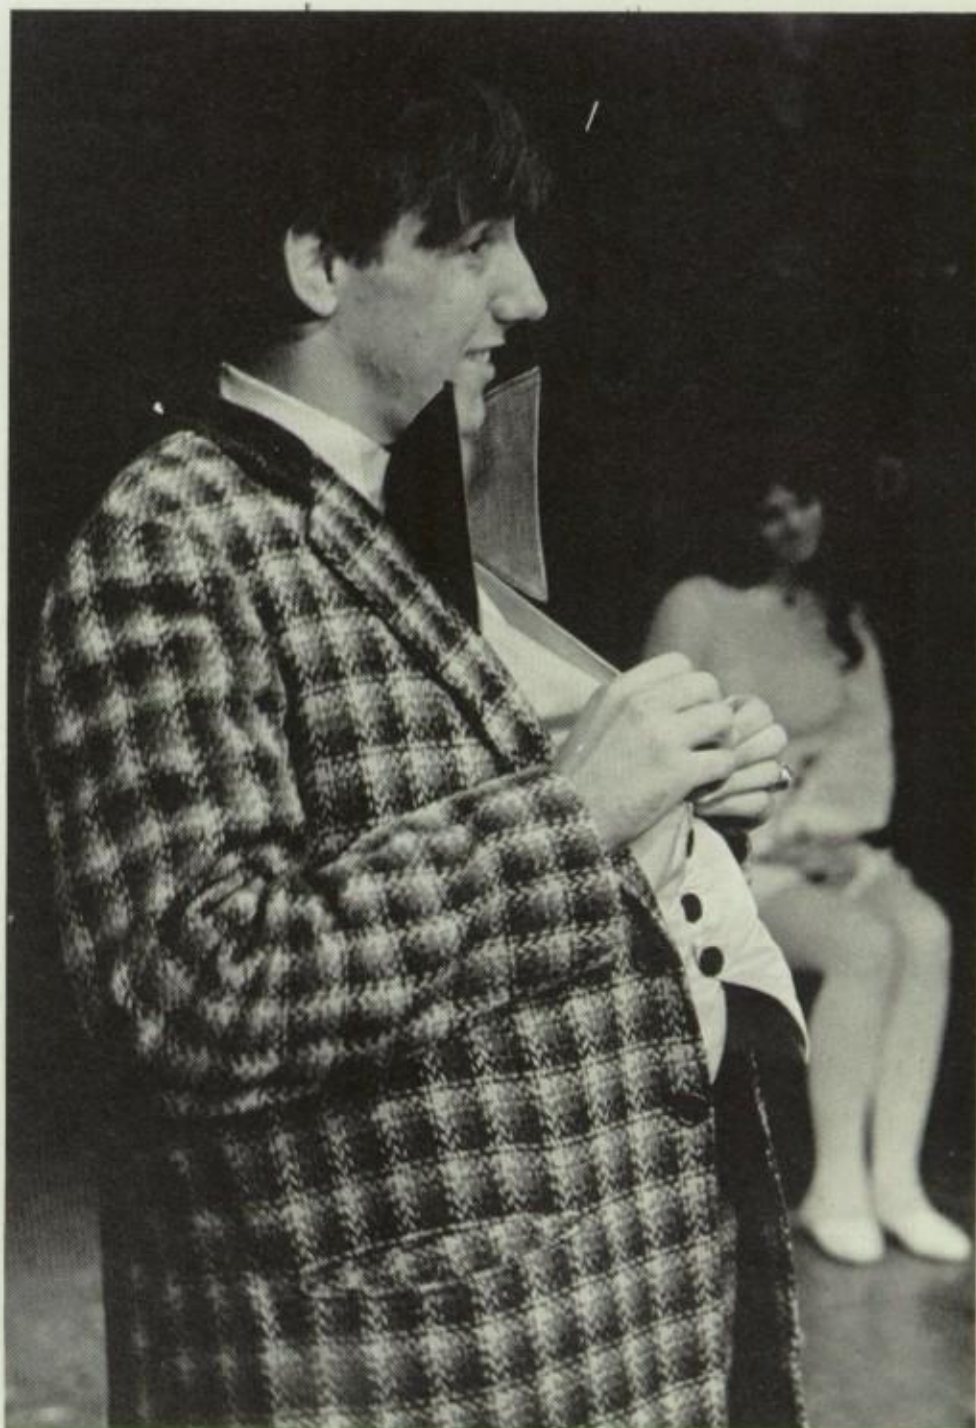

Joe Weisbrod and John Troy kept the audience laughing with their representations of the fathers; Rick Voytas and Bob Ernst were hilarious as a couple of overripe hams. Much credit is due to the band, under the direction of Mr. Michael Harter, S.J., and the stage and lighting crews, directed by Mr. Warner.

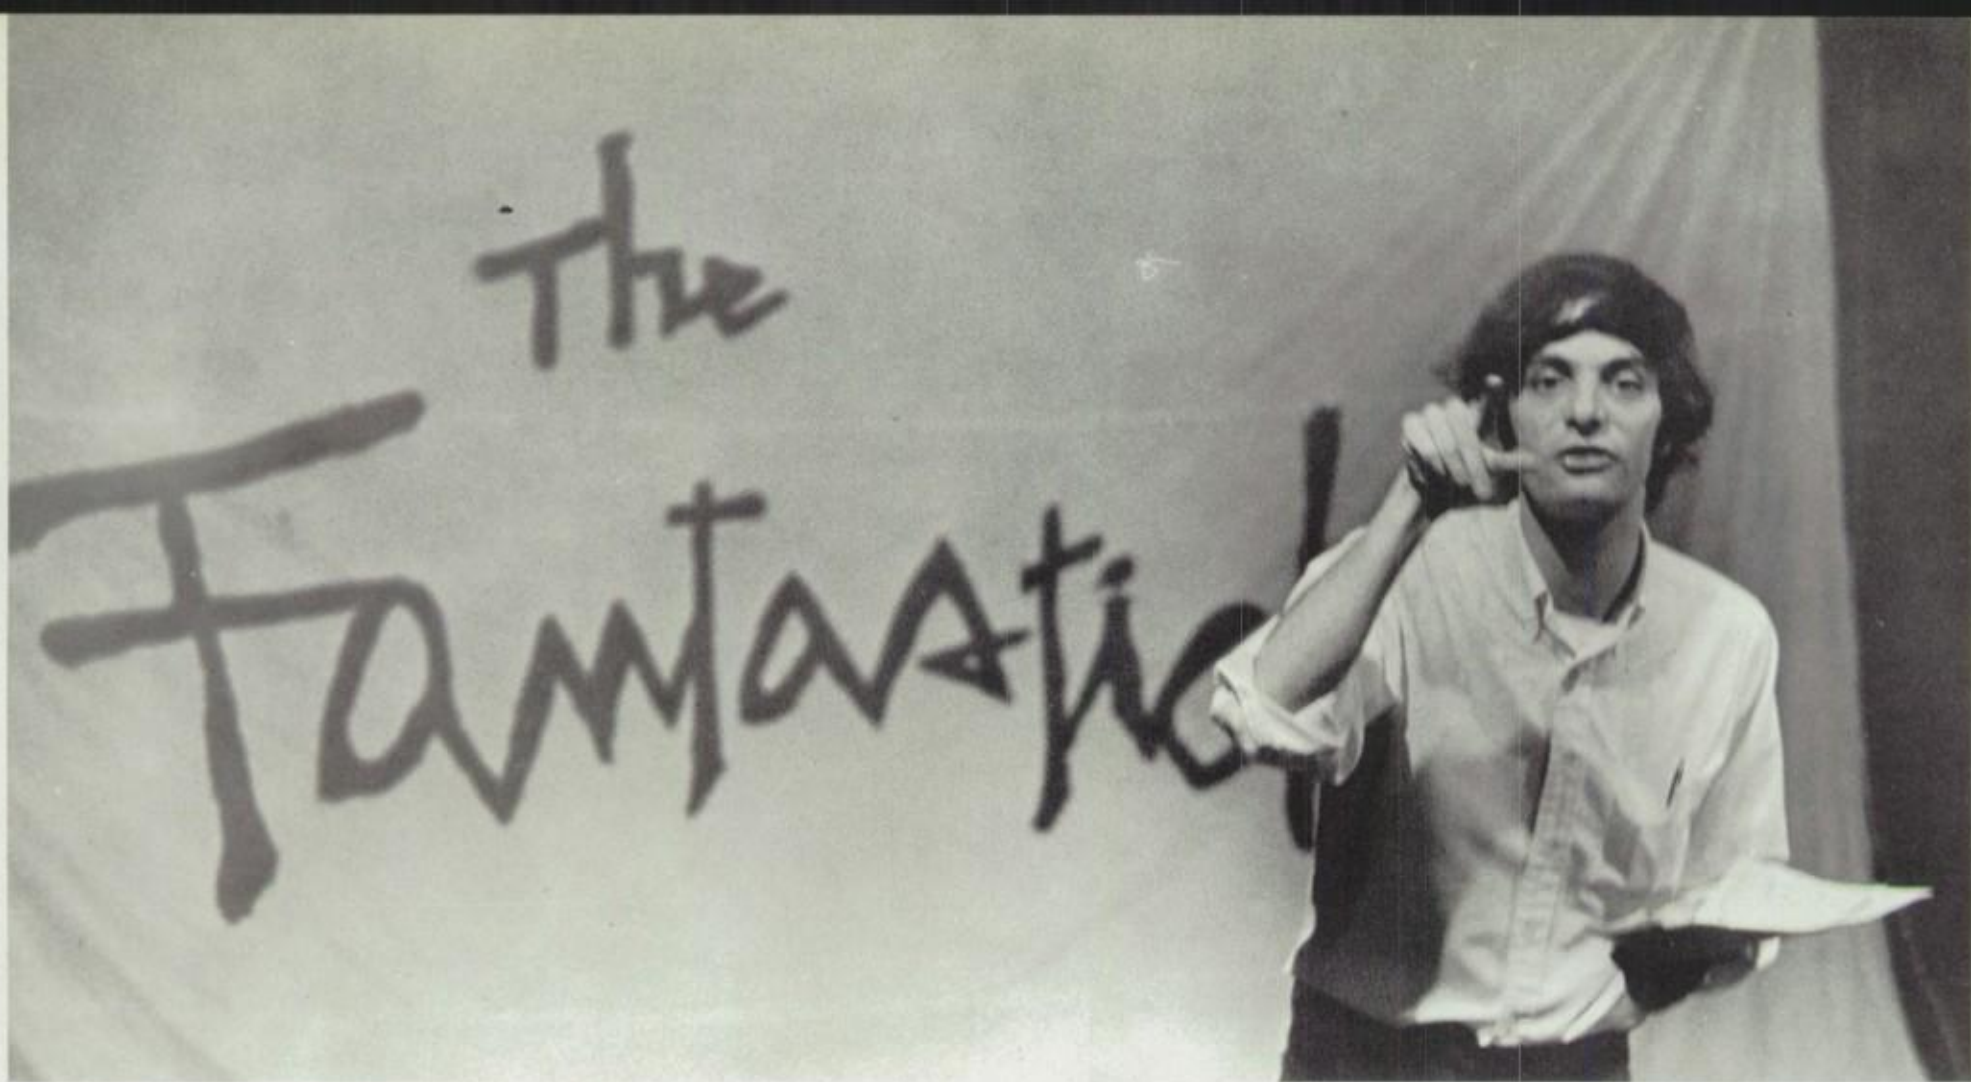

As El Gallo, Steve Keller was always on top of the situation.

Vivacious Linda Saputo dramatizes the role of Louisa Hucklebee.

Giving paternal advice to his daughter is John Troy (Mr. Hucklebee).

Producer Jack Warner issues instructions to cast prior to his moving, witty rendition of this hit.

DAUPHIN PLAYERS

Our Town depicted life in the rustic setting of Grover's Corner, N.H. The action centered on the activities of George Gibbs and Emily Webb, next-door neighbors who eventually get married. These roles were played by Steve Pelletier and Shelley Welsch. The play having no props or scenery, Joe Weisbrod, as Stage Manager, provided the vital background action.

Tom Gassner, Tom Bangert, and Steve Keller portray the three thugs.

Destry Rides Again, a musical comedy about the Old West, told the story of Destry—a quiet, lanky sheriff who attempted to reform the corrupt town of Bottleneck with out the use of guns. A typical western, the play had all the classical elements: good guys, bad guys, gun fights. Tim O'Sullivan portrayed Destry; Joe Weisbrod, Wash; Katie Nolan, Frenchie. The evil aspects were supplied by Joe Castellano, Tom Gassner, Steve Keller, and Tom Bangert. Mr. Jack Warner, S.J., directed the play.

Prep News Publishes Special Senior Project Issue

Nine seniors and one junior conspired to edit and publish a weekly Prep News and four six-to-eight-page numbers of a slick, photo-filled Prep News. The "Senior Project" issue on February 24 contained eight pages of informative articles and some seventeen pictures, courtesy of the Photography Club. Responsible for this outstanding publication were Editor John Schweitzer and his staff. Fr. David Wayne, S.J., was again Prep News moderator.

Senior Activities Section Enlarged: Legends Dropped

The Dauphin Yearbook staff, headed by Editor-in-chief Glenn Otto, presents the '71 Dauphin to the student body. Volume 47 departs somewhat from the format of previous Dauphins. For the first time in Jr. Bill history, faculty pictures are informal; for the first time the Senior Legends have been omitted. The '71 edition contains 14 more pages of pictures than the '70 issue, a fuller coverage of senior activities, a de-emphasis on textual material. This volume is dedicated to the late Ed Hawk, Vice President of the Senior Class.

Moderators Renovate Darkroom To Facilitate Work

The Photography Club took a giant step forward. A new ceiling in the darkroom, a new sink, an expansion of cabinet space—these were just a few of the advances made during the year. Responsible for these improvements were the moderators of the Photography Club: Messrs. Harter and Michalek.

Except for the senior portraits, all pictures in the '71 Dauphin were taken, developed, and printed by members of the Club. Their dedication to their work has made this book possible.

Bellarmino Club Takes Third Place In State Meet

Bellarmino members Malcic, Dierkes, and Stephen confer prior to debate.

The Bellarmine Club began its season at the Washington U. Invitational, coming in second out of 26 teams. At Belleville West, the Jr. Bill debaters collected ten trophies and the first-place crown. In the State Meet at Columbia, the team finished third among thirty schools.

In the Catholic Interscholastic Speech League, the Bills won the first round, with all SLUH entries receiving ribbons. After three rounds of CISL action, the squad was in second place with 1909 points, six tallies behind Rosati-Kain. Seven members reached the CISL finals. The Club was under the direction of Fr. Jost and Mr. Gold.

Rocket-Borne Cameras Photograph School Campus

Model builders: Vogel, Schuster, Grant, and Mark Hayek.

The newly formed Rocket Club, directed by Mr. Skiles, designed and built exotic rockets, explored the possibilities and uses of model rockets, and went on several outings for sport flying and experimentation. Several rockets were equipped with camera equipment to take movie or still photos of the school campus. The Club created school-wide interest in rocketry with its exhibit in the library showcase.

Informal Atmosphere Marks Math Club Meetings

The Math Club had only informal, non-structured meetings, mainly at the beginning of the year. Members discussed such topics as the purpose and value of symbolic logic, boolean algebra, switching circuits, and the binary number systems. Various games were based on these areas of mathematics. A math contest was arranged in March and completed in April. This contest replaced the Christmas contest.

Concert Band Plays Themes From Italian Movies

On the evening of December 5, the St. Louis U. High Concert Band presented a fine Winter Concert. Such arrangements as Giovannini's "Chorale and Capriccio" and "Great Themes from Great Italian Movies" highlighted the program. At a second concert on March 30, the Concert Band performed several numbers for the benefit of the student body.

In the fall, Mr. Michael Harter, S.J., who has directed the Concert Band for the past two years, will resume his studies, his post as director to be filled by Mr. Ralph Renner, S.J. During his two seasons as director, Mr. Harter created a well-disciplined band that brought much credit and renown to the school. His services will be missed.

Chess Team Scrambles To Third Place Finish

Overcoming an early season slump, the Chess team forged to a third place in the St. Louis High School Chess League, finishing with a 7-2-1 record. In the Ritenour Tourney, which hosted 28 teams, the Jr. Bills took a third; in the Alton Tourney, attended by 17 teams, the Bills came in fourth. Pupil-Tutor Bond Key To Upward-Bound Program

The Upward-Bound Program, manned predominantly by seniors, tutors students from Inner-City grade schools on Tuesday and Thursday afternoons and on Saturday mornings. A total of 60 boys attend these sessions in math and English. The instruction prepare the student for the high-school entrance examination. An important goal of the project is to establish a beneficial tutor-student relationship, which will bring satisfaction to both. Spearheading the Upward-Bound Program are Frs. Valiquette and McKenzie, with help from Mr. Przybylski.

Mothers' Club Involved In Three Major Projects

Mrs. Rosemary Lovinguth and Mrs. Margaret Moore appeal to Bro. Thomas Thornton, S.J., Moderator of the Mothers' Club.

Involvement probably best characterizes the Mothers' Club for the school year, 1970-71. No sooner had the year begun than the members were involved in preparations for the Fall Card Party. That event brought to a successful conclusion under the chairmanship of Mrs. Patricia Kloster and Mrs. Dolores Berger, the members then became involved in securing gifts for the Auction. General chairman of this project was Mrs. Shirley Ebel. Gift procurements fell to Mrs. Julie Beck; cataloguing to Mrs. Dolores Toenjes and Mrs. Anne Gartland; and dinner arrangements to Mrs. Margaret Unger. Finally there was the rummage sale on April 24, with a goal of 12,000 items.

Jr. Bills Defeat KC Center For Class AAAA Title

Before the season began, Coach Paul Martel made two boasts: the Junior Bills would be strong; Ziegler and Wiese would be outstanding. He made good on both his boasts. The Jr. Bills won the Missouri Class AAAA championship game at Columbia, defeating KC Central 28-19 to gain the No. 1 spot in the State ratings and culminate an 11-1 season.

Both Ziegler and Wiese were All-State, All-Metro, All-City, and All-Bi-State. Kellett joined them on the first All-Metro team; Leahy made the second. These same four were first-team All-City; Milford, Calacci, and Fahrenhorst were on the second team. Honorable mention on the All-City team went to Patterson, Caputo, Twombly, Daues, Schoeck, and Gibbons. The Junior Bills can be proud of their individual achievements, but they can be most proud of their coaches, Paul Martel and Ebbie Dunn, two of the finest in the State.

Cleveland, the Bill's first opponent, promised to be tough. They finished the '69 season with a 9-1 record, losing only to the Junior Bills, 34-8. They were expected to win the Public High title. But against the Junior Bills they could manage only eight yards rushing. The Bills won the '70 opener, 21-0, gouging out 187 yards rushing and 192 on eight pass receptions. Leahy scored on a 12-yard pass from McDonald; Thibaut went over from the one; Schoeck scored on a 31-yard pass from McDonald. The defense was led by Wiese, Twombly, O'Toole, Daues, and Ziegler.

McCluer came from behind to beat the Jr. Bills 14-6, making good on two scoring passes in the fourth quarter. A McDonald to Patterson pass covering 40 yards gave the Bills a short-lived 6-0 lead. But McCluer, the Class AAAA champs the past two years, mounted a strong passing attack that carried them to victory.

Mike Wiese (81) drops Cleveland back for loss. The Bills defeated Cleveland, 21-0.

FOOTBALL

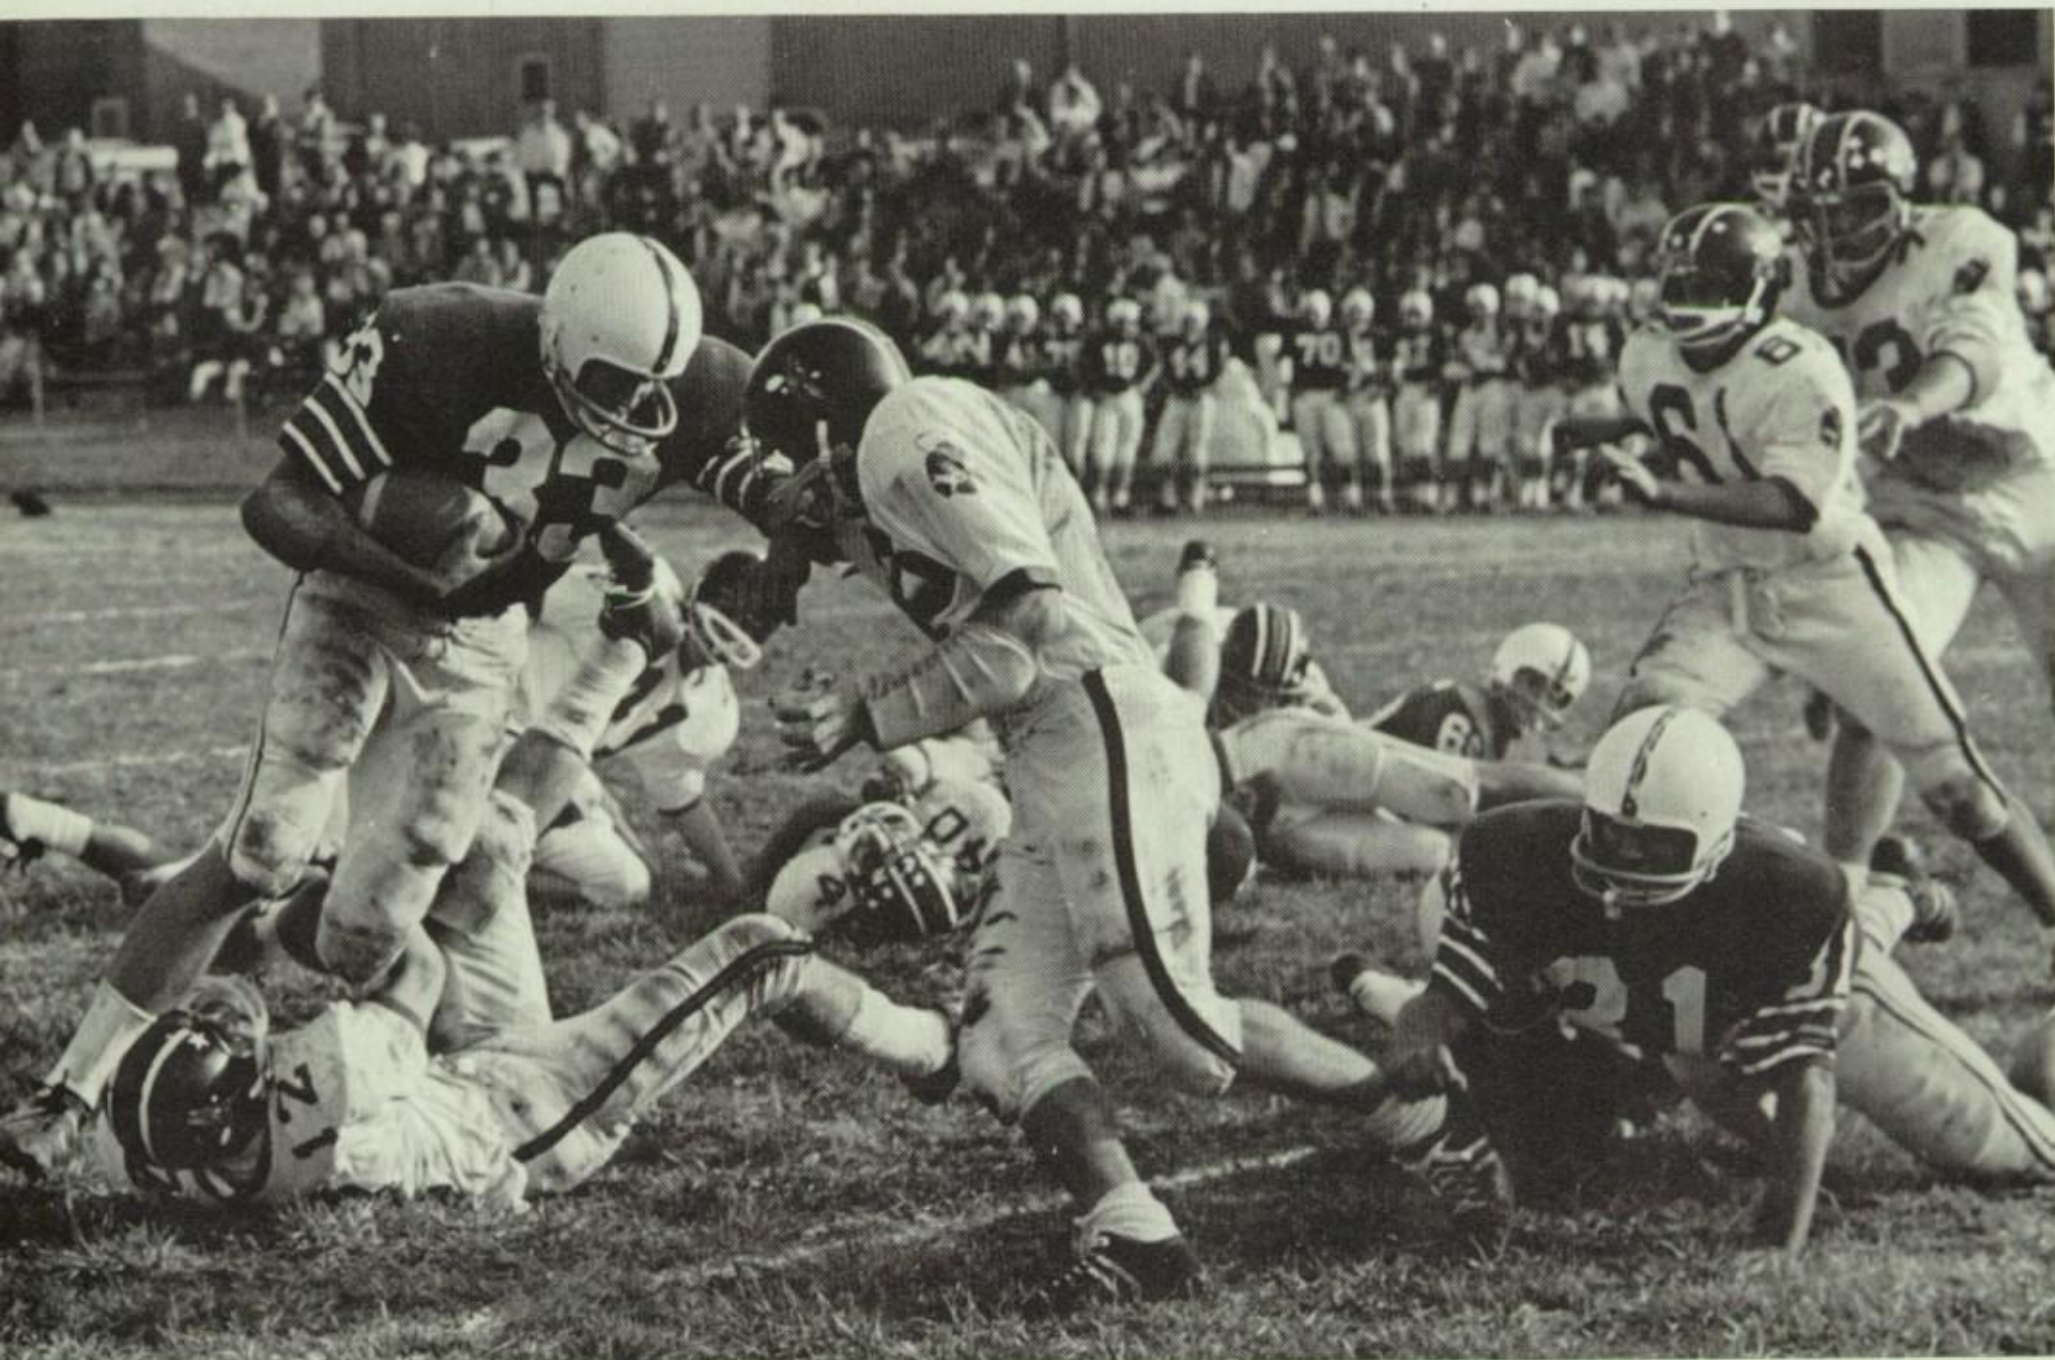

Despite the mud and wind and 110 yards in penalties, the Bills defeated Assumption, 29-0. In this Bi-State opener, Ziegler ran for two TDs, Schoeck for one, and Patterson for another, his coming on a 25-yard pass play. The defense turned in its second shutout in three games.

Highly ranked Columbia Hickman was the Bill's third victim, the game going to the Bills, 25-13. Leahy scored on a 60-yard pass from McDonald; O'Shaughnessy on a fumble recovery, and Ziegler on a 5-yard sweep. Tim Gibbons connected on two field goals. Schoeck led the defense with 17 tackles and/or assists.

A strong offense (394 yds.) and a stingy defense (49 yds.) propelled the Jr. Bills to a 30-0 victory over the Cahokia Cherokees. Patterson scored two TDs; McDonald, Thibaut, and Ziegler one each. Patterson also intercepted two passes, his third and fourth of the season.

Schoeck (24) puts the clamps on DeSmet back. Castellano and Fleming trail play.

In Augie game, Ziegler plows for good yardage. All squad members got into this game.

Billiken rooters on their feet at SLUH-CBC game, which the Bills won to clinch their second straight Bi-State crown. This victory over CBC gave the Bills a 27-15-2 edge in the series. Right: Coach Ebbie Dunn follows the action.

FOOTBALL

The Junior Bills stymied DeSmet's offense by picking off 5 passes and scoring on 2 of them. The final score had the Bills ahead 27-7. Ziegler tallied on a 55-yd. interception and a 70-yd. end run. Milford scored on a filched pass, and Patterson went in on a 13-yd. pass from Calacci.

Seven TDs, one field goal, a two-point PAT, and three one-pointers—that's how SLUH overcame Augustinian, 50-0. Ziegler carried 12 times for 68 yards and 2 TDs; Calacci completed 5 of 7 passes for 172 yards and 1 TD. Fahrenhorst led the defense with 7 tackles and 7 assists.

On Halloween the Junior Bills defeated a tough Althoff team, 6-0. The Bill's only score came on a Calacci to O'Shaughnessy pass in the second quarter. Four goal-line stands and four interceptions helped the Bills preserve their one-touchdown margin over a team with a 2-5 record.

A new Billiken gets his wish.

The defense smothers a CBC crack into the line.

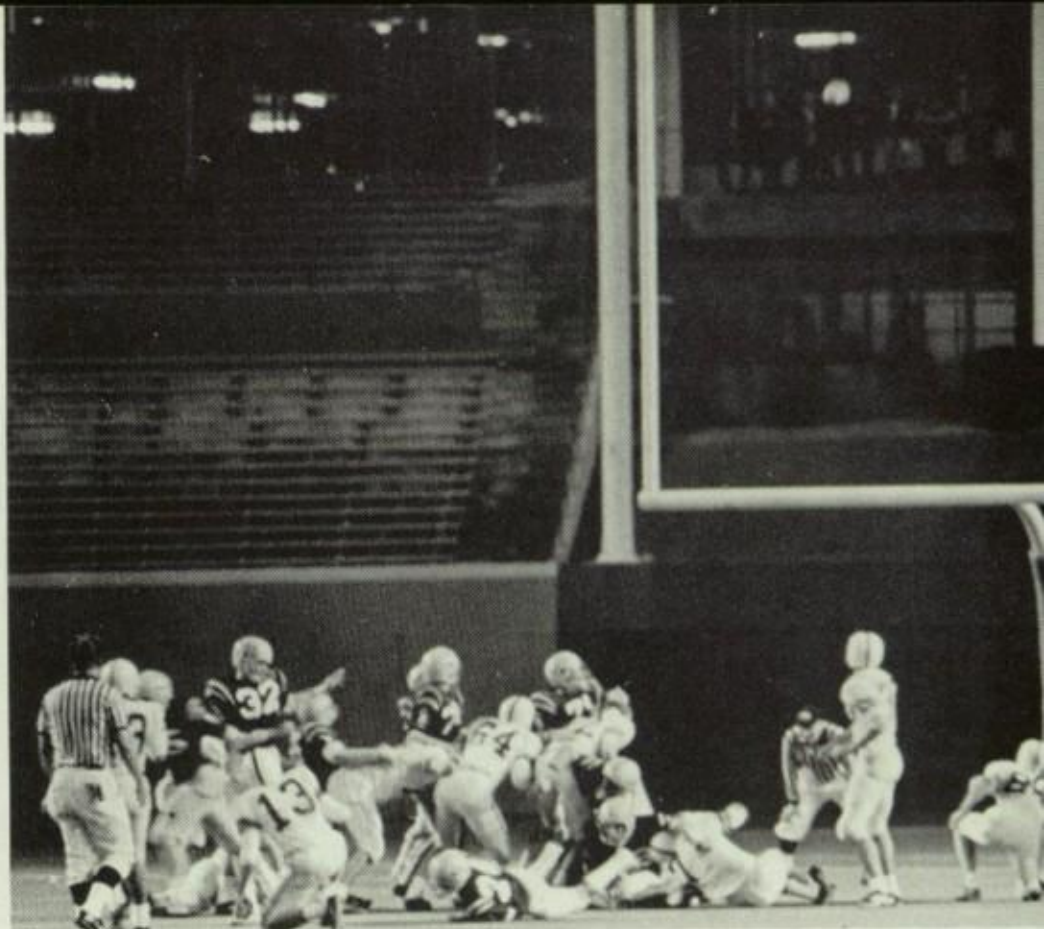

Schoeck (24) sweeps end for long yardage. In the first half the Bills rushed for 203 yards against CBC. Schoeck and Ziegler were the leading ground gainers.

FOOTBALL

Before 19,000 fans the Jr. Bills eeked out a 14-13 victory over CBC at Busch Stadium. A Calacci to Leahy pass, good for 50 yards, and a Calacci to Dohr pass, good for 80 yards, accounted for the Bill's TDs. But it was Gibbon's PAT's that spelled the difference. A kickoff return and a recovered fumble led to CBC's TDs. Calacci hit on 10 of 19 for 208 yards.

With a 15-7 victory over Riverview, the Jr. Bills gained the Class AAAA playoffs. Calacci went 47 yards on an option; Ziegler went over from the two to cap an 80-yard drive; Licata tackled Nolfo in the end zone for a safety. On the 80-yard drive Ziegler carried 10 of 13 times for 52 yards.

FOOTBALL

In a rematch with Riverview, the Junior Bills won 10-7 to gain the Class AAAA finals. A 40-yard field goal by Tim Gibbons broke a 7-7 tie. Behind 7-0, the Bills roared back in the third quarter to score on a 16-yd. toss from Calacci to Patterson. Gibbons kicked the PAT to knot the score.

Long scoring plays helped the Bills to a 28-19 victory over KC Center and to the Class AAAA title. Patterson scored on an 81-yd. kickoff return; Ziegler on an 85-yd. return and again on an 80-yard slant through the line. A one-yard plunge by Ziegler accounted for the Bill's fourth TD.

Well-Balanced B-Team Downs All Nine Opponents

Relying on a combination of an explosive offense and a sharp defense, the '70 B-team compiled a perfect 9-0 record. In winning the Bi-State crown, the sophomore squad tallied a total of 144 points to their opponents' 18. Outstanding on offense were DeCaro, Gibbons, Roach, and Shocklee, who accounted for 16 B-team touchdowns. The stingy B-team defense was anchored by Finney, Miller, and Walther. Once again Coaches Vitale and Murphy have prepared many excellent candidates for the Varsity squad.

Cees Experience Up-Down Year: Attain 3-2-1 Record

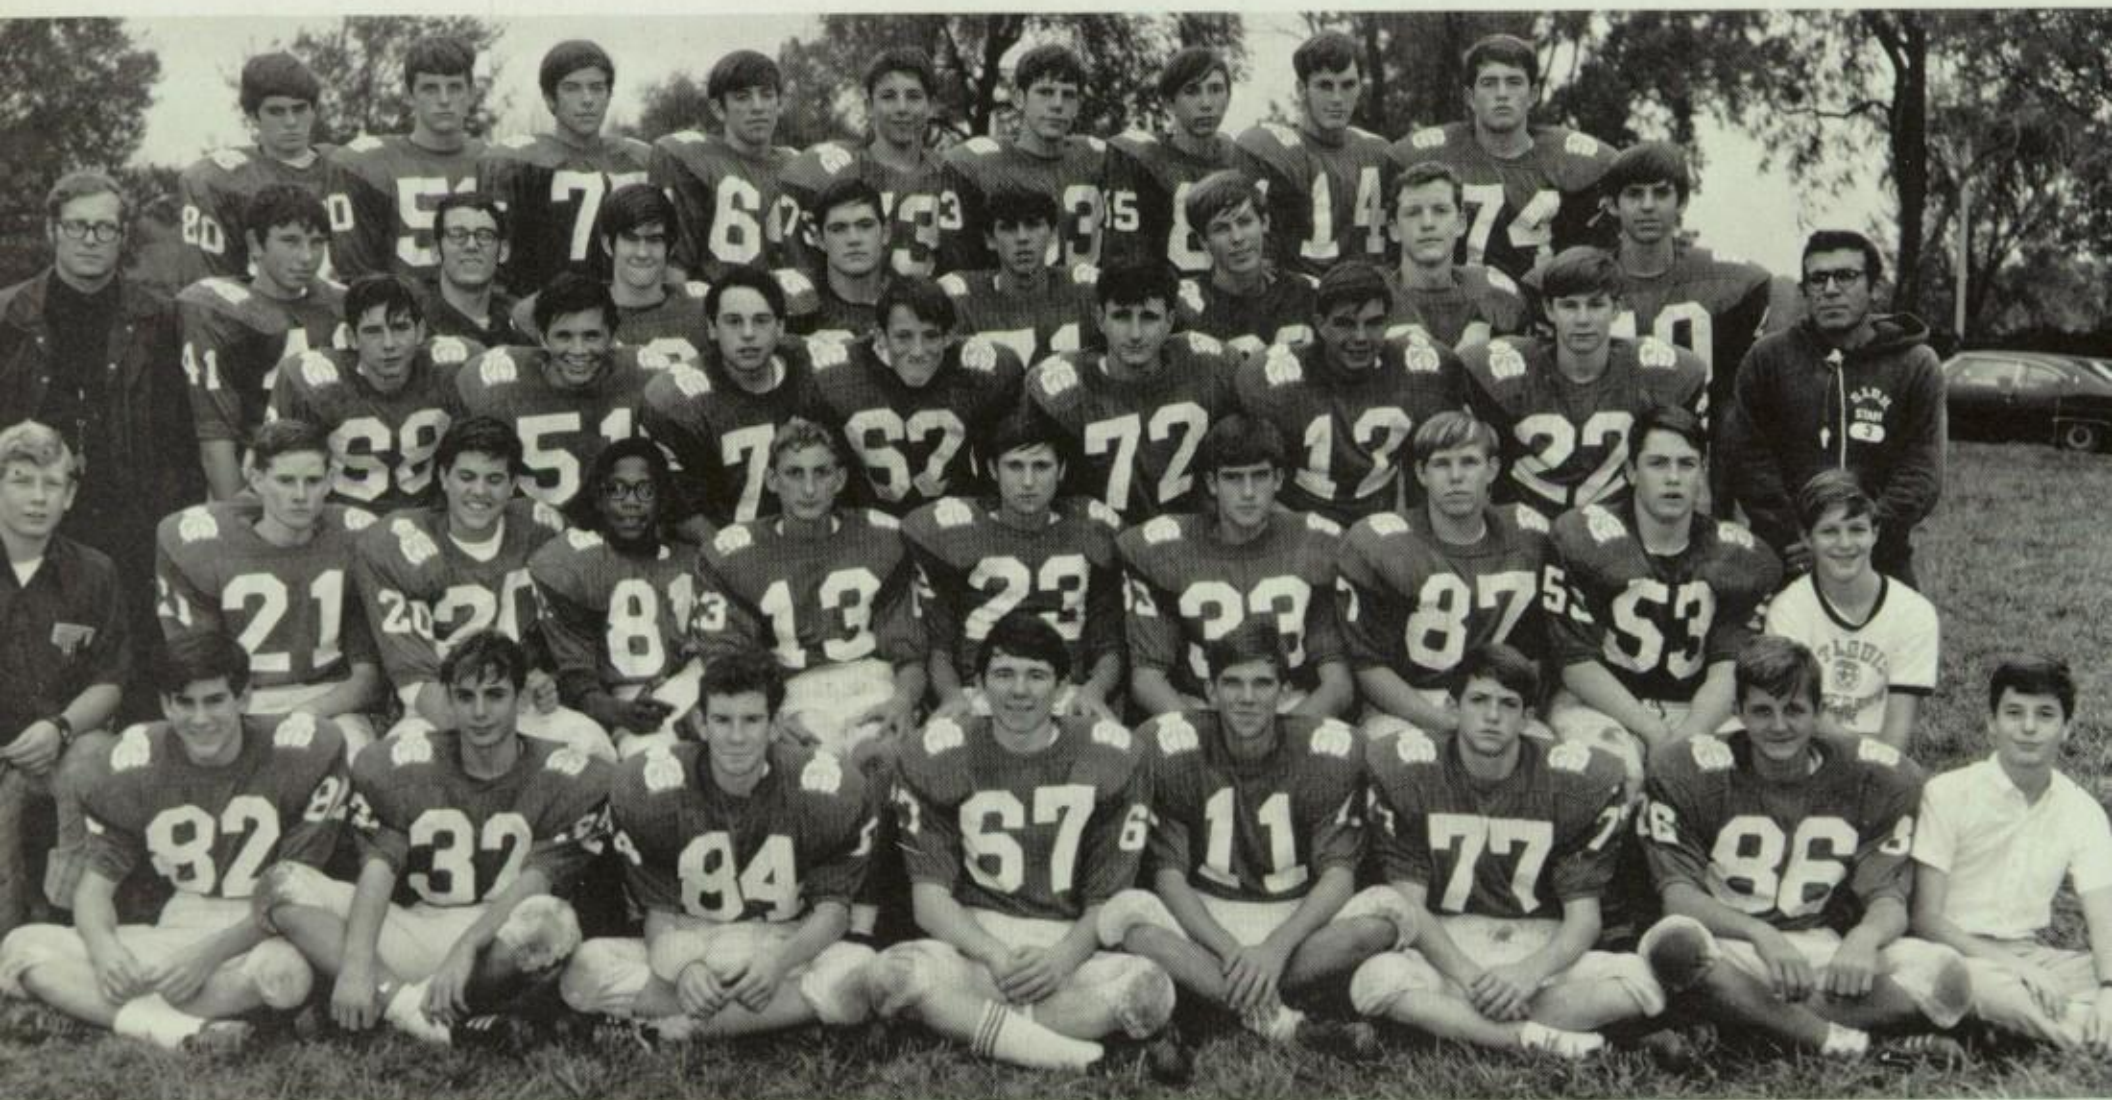

Winning three, losing two, and tying one, the C-Football team showed glimpses of a potent, but undeveloped offense. The Cees outscored their opponents 76-44, but managed only 12 points in the three games they either lost or tied. Against Assumption, DeSmet, and CBC the Cee's offense came to a virtual standstill.

The offense was spearheaded by Detwiler, whose passes to Graffigna accounted for 48 of the Cee's 76 points. Offsetting his passes was the running of Backs St. Vrain and Dicus. In the Augustinian game key defensive plays were made by Domijan and Howard. Coach Calacci's 14-year record as C-team mentor now stands at 78-13-6.

Junior Bills Ranked Seventh Among State Teams

Down by only two points with a minute to play, the Junior Bills lost the District title game to Vashon, 60-54. The Bills gave Vashon, the ultimate State Champs, its toughest game in tournament play.

In compiling a 22-6 record, the Bills played tough all season. Their six losses were by a total of 22 points; their victories were over such powerhouses as Sumner, McCluer, and Assumption. Along the way the Bills won the Bi-State crown, took a first in the DuBourg tournament, and took seconds in the Normandy and SLUH tournaments.

The Junior Bills were seventh among State teams, but second to Vashon in St. Louis. In the rankings for the Metropolitan area they were fifth. These were just a few achievements of Coach Hanick's Varsity, which was probably the smoothest working Jr. Bill team in some years. Other honors went to individuals. Steve Walsh was named to the first team All-State, All-Metro, All-District, All-City, and Bi-State. Kevin Cleary was second team All-State, All-Metro, All-District, and All-City; he joined Walsh on the Bi-State first team. Congratulations to Coach Hanick and his team are in order.

Varsity Soccer Team Records Fifteen Shutouts

The Varsity Soccer squad finished with a respectable 13-5-6 record. An extremely strong defense held the opposition scoreless on fifteen occasions; a commendable offense gave the Jr. Bills a 31-14 margin in goals. The defense was dominated by Fahrenhorst, Lovinguth, and Hannibal; the offense by Gallo, Ohmer, Ziegler, and Conway. Both Gallo and Lovinguth made second team All-State. Inexperience Handicaps Varsity Water Polo Team

With only two of sixteen lettermen returning from a 1969 squad that won the District title, the Water Polo team had to rebuild its forces. A disappointing 4-10 season was due mainly to inexperience and to an inability to hold a lead in the late-going.

The nucleus of the team was formed around Seniors Bettger, Finney, and Martin. Molina, a junior, also proved himself a scoring threat. With a year's experience, underclassmen on the squad should make the Water Polo team a potent force in '72. Fr. Valequette, S.J., moderated this activity.

For the most part, Coach Calacci must rely on underclassmen to score points. Best among them is Sophomore Paul Lammert, who ran a 4:28 mile in the State Indoor, and Junior Steve Cacciatore, who is the Junior Bill's best pole vaulter. Pitching Staff Has Key To Varsity Baseball Success

Cold weather delayed workouts before the first Varsity Baseball game. So the Jr. Bills started their season in sandlot fashion, tying DeSmet 10-10. This was the first game of a 17-game schedule which will lead to the District games and possibly to the State Finals at Springfield, Missouri.
